Trinity College Music Society

Michaelmas 2019

Chapel Concert Series

Friday 11/10 | Freshers' Week Concert

Members of the TCMS Committee introduce newcomers to Trinity's music scene with a short concert of choral and instrumental music.

++ 8.30pm ++ Free ++

Saturday 12 /10 | From Monteverdi to J S Bach

Dorian Chamber Orchestra & Choir returns to Trinity College Chapel with a programme bringing together music from across the Baroque period, ranging from Monteverdi to Bach.

Celebrating pan-European musical collaboration, this programme is built around the complex web of composers that helped to form the mature Baroque style, culminating in J S Bach's arrangement of Pergolesi's 'Stabat Mater': Tilge Höchster, meine Sünden.

++ 8.00pm ++ £8/£5/Free ++

Friday 01/11 | Tudor and Shakespearean Evening

Join former Trinity Organ Scholar Eleanor Kornas and soprano Eleanor Penfold for an evening of contemporary classical vocal works including Try Me, Good King: Last Words of the Wives of Henry VIII by Libby Larson.

++ 8.00pm ++ £15/£12.50/Free ++

Friday 08/11 | Continuum: Remembrance

Join Continuum, directed by Trinity Choral Scholar Harry Guthrie, in a performance of Howells' Requiem together with works by Gurney, Bednall and Thalange.

++ 8.30pm ++ Free ++

Friday 15/11 and Saturday 16/11 | Giulio Cesare

TCMS presents an audacious production of Handel's operatic masterpiece, Giulio Cesare, co-directed by Louisa Stuart-Smith and Aïda Lahlou. These two exceptional evenings promise to be a real highlight of the term and will feature some of Cambridge's finest singers, dancers, and instrumentalists. This production with over 60 people will be using the original Italian text, but the audience will be able to follow English subtitles on TV screens.

++ 8.00pm ++ £15/£10/£5/Free ++ <http://adcticketing.com> ++

Friday 22/11 | King Henry's VIII

Eight Trinity Choral Scholars return to Chapel to perform a selection of consort music from the Renaissance to the present day.

++ 8.00pm ++ Free ++

Saturday 23/11 | The Trinity Singers

The Trinity Singers, under the direction of second-year music student Alex Patel, perform Mozart's Requiem in D Minor.
